COUNTY OF

NOTICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE DISQUALIFICATION CALIFORNIA WORK OPPORTUNITY ((

According to the backe action was sent or given to you, If a state hearing decision found that you committed an IPV, the state or federal government may still prosecute you in court.    State hearing decision found you committed an IPV, who signed a Disqualification action in a state hearing.    A state hearing decision found you committed an IPV, who signed a Disqualification Consent Agreement on who were disqualified from the Call/VORKs Program in you signed an Administrative Disqualification Hearing Waiver on you was sent or given to you. If a state hearing decision found that you committed an IPV, who signed an Disqualification for the Call/VORKs Program in your work of signed in the Call/VORKs Program in your your government may still prosecute you in court.    A copy of the above action was sent or given to you. If a state hearing Waiver on you were disqualified from the Call/VORKs Program in your your your your your your your your	CALIFORNIA WORK OPPORTUNITY	Notice Date : Case
CallWORKs) PROGRAM    Note   Interpress   In
Cuestions? Ask your Worker.    State Hearing: You cannot appeal the disqualification action in a state hearing.    State Hearing: You cannot appeal the disqualification action in a state hearing.    A state hearing decision found you committed an intentional program violation (IPV).		Worker
OUESIONS? Ask your Worker.    State Hearing: You cannot appeal the disqualification action in a state hearing.	(Calworks) PROGRAM
DISQUALIFICATION ACTION  The following action disqualified you from the CalWORKs Program:    Asta
DISQUALIFICATION ACTION The following action disqualified you from the CalWORKs Program:    A state hearing decision found you committed an intentional program violation (IPV).
DISQUALIFICATION ACTION The following action disqualified you from the CalWORKs Program: The following action disqualified you from the CalWORKs Program: The following action disqualified you from the CalWORKs Program: The following action disqualified you from the CalWORKs Program: The following action disqualified you from the CalWORKs Program: The following action disqualified you from the CalWORKs Program in the following program you follow the following program you follow the following program you follow the following program you were disqualified from the CalWORKs Program in the following program you were disqualified from the CalWORKs Program in the following program you were disqualified from the CalWORKs Program in the following program you were disqualified from the CalWORKs Program in the following program you were disqualified from the CalWORKs Program in the following program you were disqualified from the CalWORKs Program in the following program you were disqualified from the CalWORKs Program in the following program you were disqualified from the CalWORKs Program in the following program you were disqualified from the CalWORKs Program in the following program you were disqualified from the CalWORKs Program in the following program you were disqualified from the following works the following program you were disqualified from the second you will altow to not reporting all facts or giving wrong facts for children who are not eligible or do not exist.    Pour years for the third violation for:   Not reporting all facts or giving wrong facts.   Pour years for the third violation for:   A felony conviction in a state or federal court, and the overpayment is less than $2,000 and $5,000 in cash aid.   Pour years for the second violation for not reporting all facts or giving wrong facts.   Pour years for the second violation for not reporting all facts or giving wrong facts.   Pour years for the second violation for filing, on purpose, more than one application for the same type of aid, for the same per
State Hearing: You cannot appeal the disqualification action in a state hearing.    DISQUALIFICATION ACTION	(ADDRESSEE)
State Hearing: You cannot appeal the disqualification action in a state hearing.    DISQUALIFICATION ACTION
DISQUALIFICATION ACTION The following action disqualified you from the CalWORKs Program:    A state hearing decision found you committed an intentional program violation (IPV).   A court decision found you committed an IPV.   You signed a Disqualification Consent Agreement on   You signed an Administrative Disqualification Flearing Waiver on   Recommon   You were disqualified from the CalWORKs Program in   Recommon		Questions? Ask your Worker.
DISQUALIFICATION ACTION The following action disqualified you from the CalWORKs Program:    A state hearing decision found you committed an intentional program violation (IPV).   A court decision found you committed an IPV.   You signed a Disqualification Consent Agreement on   You signed an Administrative Disqualification Flearing Waiver on   Recommon   You were disqualified from the CalWORKs Program in   Recommon
DISQUALIFICATION ACTION The following action disqualified you from the CalWORKs Program:    A state hearing decision found you committed an intentional program violation (IPV).   A court decision found you committed an IPV.   You signed a Disqualification Consent Agreement on   You signed an Administrative Disqualification Flearing Waiver on   Recommon   You were disqualified from the CalWORKs Program in   Recommon		October 11 october 12
DISQUALIFICATION ACTION The following action disqualified you from the CalWORKs Program:    A state hearing decision found you committed an intentional program violation (IPV):   A court decision found you committed an intentional program violation (IPV):   A court decision found you committed an IPV   You signed a Disqualification Consent Agreement on   You were disqualified from the CalWORKs Program in   (LOCATION)    A copy of the above action was sent or given to you, If a state hearing decision found that you committed an IPV, the state or federal government may still prosecute you in court.    DISQUALIFICATION PENALTIES   Panalties for violations committed before January 1, 1998   Six months for the first violation for not reporting all facts or giving wrong facts.   Six months for the second violation for not reporting all facts or giving wrong facts for children who are not eligible or do not exist.   Four years for the second violation for filing more than one application or giving wrong facts for children who are not eligible or do not exist.   Permanently for the third violation for filing more than one application or giving wrong facts for children who are not eligible or do not exist.   Permanently for the third violation for.   Not reporting all facts or giving wrong facts for children who are ineligible or do not exist.   Penalties for violations committed on or after January 1, 1998   Six months for the first violation for not reporting all facts or giving wrong facts.   Two years for the first violation for not reporting all facts or giving wrong facts.   Port offiling, on purpose, more than one application for the same type of aid, for the same type of aid, for the same type of aid, for the same period of time.   For the third violation for:   Not reporting all facts or giving wrong facts.   For the third violation for children who are not eligible or do not exist.   For the third violation for children who are not eligible or do not exist.   For filing an application for children who are not
The following action disqualified you from the CalWORKs Program:  A state hearing decision found you committed an intentional program violation (IPV).  A court decision found you committed an IPV.  You signed a Disqualification Consent Agreement on  You were disqualified from the CalWORKs Program in  (IDCARPON)  A copy of the above action was sent or given to you. If a state hearing decision found that you committed an IPV, the state or federal government may still prosecute you in court.  DISQUALIFICATION PENALTIES  Penalties for violations committed before January 1, 1998  Six months for the first violation for not reporting all facts or giving wrong facts.  Twelve months for the second violation for not reporting all facts or giving wrong facts for children who are not eligible or do not exist.  Four years for the first violation for filing more than one application or giving wrong facts for children who are not eligible or do not exist.  Permanently for the third violation for:  Not reporting all facts or giving wrong facts.  Filing more than one application or giving wrong facts for children who are not eligible or do not exist.  Penalties for violations committed on or after January 1, 1998  Six months for the first violation for reporting all facts or giving wrong facts.  Twelve months for the second violation for not reporting all facts or giving wrong facts.  Two years for the first violation for not reporting all facts or giving wrong facts.  Two years for the first violation for not reporting all facts or giving wrong facts.  Two years for the first violation for not reporting all facts or giving wrong facts.  For lining an purpose, more than one application for the same type of aid, for the same period of time.  For the third violation for:  Not reporting all facts or giving wrong facts.  For Iling, on purpose, more than one application for the same type of aid, for the same period of time.  For filing an application for children who are not eligible or do not exist.  For filing application for chil		disqualification action in a state flearing.
The following action disqualified you from the CalWORKs Program:    A state hearing decision found you committed an intentional program violation (IPV).   You signed a Disqualification Consent Agreement on
The following action disqualified you from the CalWORKs Program:    A state hearing decision found you committed an intentional program violation (IPV).   You signed a Disqualification Consent Agreement on
The following action disqualified you from the CalWORKs Program:    A state hearing decision found you committed an intentional program violation (IPV).   You signed a Disqualification Consent Agreement on	_
The following action disqualified you from the CalWORKs Program:    A state hearing decision found you committed an intentional program violation (IPV).   You signed a Disqualification Consent Agreement on	DISQUALIFICATION ACTION
A court decision found you committed an IPV.  you signed a Disqualification Consent Agreement on  You signed an Administrative Disqualification Hearing Waiver on You were disqualified from the CalWORKs Program in  COCATION  A copy of the above action was sent or given to you. If a state hearing decision found that you committed an IPV, the state or federal government may still prosecute you in court.  DISQUALIFICATION PENALTIES  Penalties for violations committed before January 1, 1998  Six months for the first violation for not reporting all facts or giving wrong facts.  Twelve months for the second violation for rot reporting all facts or giving wrong facts.  Two years for the second violation for filing more than one application or giving wrong facts for children who are not eligible or do not exist.  Pour years for the second violation for:  Not reporting all facts or giving wrong facts for children who are not eligible or do not exist.  Permanently for the third violation for:  Not reporting all facts or giving wrong facts for children who are ineligible or do not exist.  Penalties for violations committed on or after January 1, 1998  Six months for the first violation for not reporting all facts or giving wrong facts.  Two years for the first violation for not reporting all facts or giving wrong facts.  Two years for the second violation for not reporting all facts or giving wrong facts.  Two years for the first violation for.  A felony conviction in a state or federal court, and the overpayment is less than $2,000.  For filing, on purpose, more than one application for the same type of aid, for the same period of time.  Four years for the second violation for:  Not reporting all facts or giving wrong facts.  Filing non purpose, more than one application for the same type of aid, for the same period of time.  For filing an application for children who are not eligible or do not exist.  For filing an application for children who are not eligible or do not exist.  For filing on purpose, more than one applic	The following action disqualified you from the CalWORKs Program:
You signed a Disqualification Consent Agreement on	A state hearing decision found you committed an intentional program violation (IPV).
You signed an Administrative Disqualification Hearing Waiver on	A court decision found you committed an IPV.
A copy of the above action was sent or given to you. If a state hearing decision found that you committed an IPV, the state or federal government may still prosecute you in court.  DISQUALIFICATION PENALTIES  Penalties for violations committed before January 1, 1998  Six months for the first violation for not reporting all facts or giving wrong facts.  Twelve months for the second violation for not reporting all facts or giving wrong facts for children who are not eligible or do not exist.  Four years for the second violation for filing more than one application or giving wrong facts for children who are not eligible or do not exist.  Permanently for the third violation for:  Not reporting all facts or giving wrong facts for children who are not eligible or do not exist.  Penalties for violations committed on or after January 1, 1998  Six months for the first violation for not reporting all facts or giving wrong facts.  Twelve months for the second violation for not reporting all facts or giving wrong facts.  Twelve months for the second violation for not reporting all facts or giving wrong facts.  Two years for the first violation for not reporting all facts or giving wrong facts.  Two years for the first violation for not reporting all facts or giving wrong facts.  Two years for the first violation for not reporting all facts or giving wrong facts.  Two years for the first violation for not reporting all facts or giving wrong facts.  The proving of the first violation for not reporting all facts or giving wrong facts.  Two years for the first violation for not reporting all facts or giving wrong facts.  The proving all facts or giving wrong facts or giving wrong facts.  For giving on purpose, more than one application for the same type of aid, for the same type of aid, for the same period of time.  For pring an application for giving wrong facts.  Filing, on purpose, more than one application for the same type of aid, for the same period of time.  For filing an application for children who are not eligible or	Vou signed an Administrative Disqualification Hearing Wa	Vaiver on
A copy of the above action was sent or given to you. If a state hearing decision found that you committed an IPV, the state or federal government may still prosecute you in court.    DISQUALIFICATION PENALTIES	☐ You were disqualified from the CalWORKs Program in _ government may still prosecute you in court.  DISQUALIFICATION PENALTIES Penalties for violations committed before January 1, 1998  Six months for the first violation for not reporting all facts or giving wrong facts. Two years for the second violation for not reporting all facts or giving wrong facts for children who are not eligible or do not exist. Four years for the second violation for filling more than one application or giving wrong facts for children who are not eligible or do not exist. Permanently for the third violation for: Not reporting all facts or giving wrong facts. Filling more than one application or giving wrong facts for children who are ineligible or do not exist.  Penalties for violations committed on or after January 1, 1998 Six months for the first violation for not reporting all facts or giving wrong facts. Two years for the first violation for not reporting all facts or giving wrong facts. Two years for the first violation for not reporting all facts or giving wrong facts. Two years for the first violation for: A felony conviction in a state or federal court, and the overpayment is less than $2,000. For filing, on purpose, more than one application for the same type of aid, for the same type of
Penalties for violations committed before January 1, 1998    Six months for the first violation for not reporting all facts or giving wrong facts.   Twelve months for the second violation for not reporting all facts or giving wrong facts for children who are not eligible or do not exist.   Twelve months for the second violation for filing more than one application or giving wrong facts for children who are not eligible or do not exist.   Four years for the second violation for filing more than one application or giving wrong facts for children who are not eligible or do not exist.   Permanently for the third violation for:   Permanently for the third violation for:   Not reporting all facts or giving wrong facts.   Filing more than one application or giving wrong facts for children who are ineligible or do not exist.   Penalties for violations committed on or after January 1, 1998   Six months for the first violation for not reporting all facts or giving wrong facts.   Twelve months for the second violation for not reporting all facts or giving wrong facts.   Twelve months for the second violation for not reporting all facts or giving wrong facts.   Twelve months for the second violation for not reporting all facts or giving wrong facts.   Twelve months for the second violation for not reporting all facts or giving wrong facts.   Twelve months for the second violation for not reporting all facts or giving wrong facts.   For filing, on purpose, more than one application for the same type of aid, for the same period of time.   For giving about or misreporting of the second violation for filing, on purpose, more than one application for the same type of aid, for the same period of time.   For lying about or misreportens or giving wrong facts.   Filing, on purpose, more than one application for the same type of aid, for the same period of time.   For lying about or misreportens or giving wrong facts.   For lying about or misreportens or giving wrong facts or giving wrong facts or giving wrong facts or giving wrong	A copy of the above action was sent or given to you. If a state he covernment may still prosecute you in court	earing decision found that you committed an IPV, the state or federal
Penalties for violations committed before January 1, 1998  Six months for the first violation for not reporting all facts or giving wrong facts.  Two years for the first violation for filing more than one application or giving wrong facts for children who are not eligible or do not exist.  Four years for the second violation for filing more than one application or giving wrong facts for children who are not eligible or do not exist.  Four years for the second violation for filing more than one application or giving wrong facts for children who are not eligible or do not exist.  Permanently for the third violation for:  Not reporting all facts or giving wrong facts for children who are ineligible or do not exist.  Penalties for violations committed on or after January 1, 1998  Six months for the first violation for not reporting all facts or giving wrong facts.  Twelve months for the second violation for not reporting all facts or giving wrong facts.  Twelve months for the second violation for not reporting all facts or giving wrong facts.  Twelve months for the first violation for not reporting all facts or giving wrong facts.  Twelve months for the second violation for not reporting all facts or giving wrong facts.  Twelve months for the first violation for not reporting all facts or giving wrong facts.  Twelve months for the first violation for not reporting all facts or giving wrong facts.  Twelve months for the second violation for not reporting all facts or giving wrong facts.  For liling, on purpose, more than one application for the same type of aid, for the same type of aid, for the same type of time.  For lying about or misrepresenting your place of residence in order to get more than one cash aid grant at the same time from two or more states or counties.  For a felony conviction in a state or federal court for fraudulently receiving or attempting to get more than $5,000 in cash aid.  According to the violation checked above, this means that:  You cannot get aid as of for federal court for for months/
Six months for the first violation for not reporting all facts or giving wrong facts.  Twelve months for the second violation for not reporting all facts or giving wrong facts for children who are not eligible or do not exist.  Four years for the second violation for filing more than one application or giving wrong facts for children who are not eligible or do not exist.  Permanently for the third violation for:  Not reporting all facts or giving wrong facts.  Fliling more than one application or giving wrong facts for children who are ineligible or do not exist.  Pernalties for violations committed on or after January 1, 1998  Six months for the first violation for not reporting all facts or giving wrong facts.  Twelve months for the second violation for not reporting all facts or giving wrong facts.  Two years for the first violation for:  A felony conviction in a state or federal court, and the overpayment is less than $2,000.  For filing, on purpose, more than one application for the same type of aid, for the same period of time.  Four years for the second violation for filing, on purpose, more than one application for the same type of aid, for the same type of aid, for the same type of aid, for the same type of time.  Five years for a felony conviction in a state or federal court for fraudulently receiving between $2,000 and $5,000 in cash aid.  Permanently:  For the third violation for:  Not reporting all facts or giving wrong facts.  For lying about or misrepresenting your place of residence in order to get more than one cash aid grant at the same time from two or more states or counties.  For a felony conviction in a state or federal court for fraudulently receiving or attempting to get more than $5,000 in cash aid.  For fraudulently receiving more than $10,000 in cash aid.  According to the violation checked above, this means that:  You cannot get aid as of months. Since you are not eligible now, this penalty will start when you reapply and are otherwise eligible.  You cannot get aid for
Two years for the first violation for filing more than one application or giving wrong facts for children who are not eligible or do not exist.  Four years for the second violation for filing more than one application or giving wrong facts for children who are not eligible or do not exist.  Permanently for the third violation for:  Not reporting all facts or giving wrong facts.  Filing more than one application or giving wrong facts for children who are ineligible or do not exist.  Penalties for violations committed on or after January 1, 1998  Six months for the first violation for not reporting all facts or giving wrong facts.  Twelve months for the second violation for not reporting all facts or giving wrong facts.  Two years for the first violation for:  A felony conviction in a state or federal court, and the overpayment is less than $2,000.  For filing, on purpose, more than one application for the same type of aid, for the same period of time.  Four years for the second violation for filing, on purpose, more than one application for the same type of aid, for the same period of time.  For the third violation for:  Not reporting all facts or giving wrong facts.  Filing, on purpose, more than one application for the same type of aid, for the same period of time.  For filing an application for children who are not eligible or do not exist.  For lying about or misrepresenting your place of residence in order to get more than one cash aid grant at the same time from two or more states or counties.  For a felony conviction in a state or federal court for fraudulently receiving or attempting to get more than $5,000 in cash aid.  For fraudulently receiving more than $10,000 in cash aid.  According to the violation checked above, th
Four years for the second violation for filing more than one application or giving wrong facts for children who are not eligible or do not exist.   Permanently for the third violation for:   Not reporting all facts or giving wrong facts.   Filing more than one application or giving wrong facts for children who are ineligible or do not exist.   Penalties for violations committed on or after January 1, 1998   Six months for the first violation for not reporting all facts or giving wrong facts.   Twelve months for the second violation for not reporting all facts or giving wrong facts.   Two years for the first violation for:   A felony conviction in a state or federal court, and the overpayment is less than $2,000.   For filing, on purpose, more than one application for the same type of aid, for the same period of time.   Four years for the second violation for filing, on purpose, more than one application for the same type of aid, for the same period of time.   For the third violation for:   For giling an application for children who are not eligible or do not exist.   For lying about or misrepresenting your place of residence in order to get more than one cash aid grant at the same time from two or more states or counties.   For a felony conviction in a state or federal court for fraudulently receiving or attempting to get more than $5,000 in cash aid.   According to the violation checked above, this means that:   You cannot exist.    Permanently for the third violation for:   Not reporting all facts or giving wrong facts.   Filing more than one application or giving wrong facts for children who are ineligible or do not exist.   Penalties for violations committed on or after January 1, 1998   Six months for the first violation for not reporting all facts or giving wrong facts.   Twelve months for the second violation for not reporting all facts or giving wrong facts.   Two years for the first violation for:   A felony conviction in a state or federal court, and the overpayment is less than $2,000.   For filing, on purpose, more than one application for the same type of aid, for the same period of time.   Four years for the second violation for filing, on purpose, more than one application for the same type of aid, for the same type of aid, for the same type of aid, for the same type of time.   Five years for a felony conviction in a state or federal court for fraudulently receiving between $2,000 and $5,000 in cash aid.   Permanently:   For the third violation for:   Not reporting all facts or giving wrong facts.   Filing, on purpose, more than one application for the same type of aid, for the same period of time.   For filing an application for children who are not eligible or do not exist.   For lying about or misrepresenting your place of residence in order to get more than one cash aid grant at the same time from two or more states or counties.   For a felony conviction in a state or federal court for fraudulently receiving or attempting to get more than $5,000 in cash aid.   According to the violation checked above, this means that:   You cannot get aid as of Permanently for the third violation for:   Not reporting all facts or giving wrong facts.   Filing more than one application for giving wrong facts for children who are ineligible or do not exist.   Penalties for violations committed on or after January 1, 1998   Six months for the first violation for not reporting all facts or giving wrong facts.   Twelve months for the second violation for not reporting all facts or giving wrong facts.   Two years for the first violation for:   A felony conviction in a state or federal court, and the overpayment is less than $2,000.   For filing, on purpose, more than one application for the same type of aid, for the same period of time.   Four years for the second violation for filing, on purpose, more than one application for the same type of aid, for the same type of aid, for the same type of time.   Five years for a felony conviction in a state or federal court for fraudulently receiving between $2,000 and $5,000 in cash aid.   Permanently:   For the third violation for:   Not reporting all facts or giving wrong facts.   Filing, on purpose, more than one application for the same type of aid, for the same period of time.   For filing an application for children who are not eligible or do not exist.   For lying about or misrepresenting your place of residence in order to get more than one cash aid grant at the same time from two or more states or counties.   For a felony conviction in a state or federal court for fraudulently receiving or attempting to get more than $5,000 in cash aid.   For fraudulently receiving more than $10,000 in cash aid.   According to the violation checked above, this means that:   You cannot get aid so f		Silication of giving wrong facts for children who are not eligible of do not
Filing more than one application or giving wrong facts for children who are ineligible or do not exist.   Penalties for violations committed on or after January 1, 1998     Six months for the first violation for not reporting all facts or giving wrong facts.     Two years for the first violation for:   A felony conviction in a state or federal court, and the overpayment is less than $2,000.     For filing, on purpose, more than one application for the same type of aid, for the same period of time.     Four years for the second violation for filing, on purpose, more than one application for the same type of aid, for the same type of time.     For the third violation for:     Not reporting all facts or giving wrong facts.     Filing, on purpose, more than one application for the same type of aid, for the same period of time.     For filing an application for children who are not eligible or do not exist.     For lying about or misrepresenting your place of residence in order to get more than one cash aid grant at the same time from two or more states or counties.     For a felony conviction in a state or federal court for fraudulently receiving or attempting to get more than $5,000 in cash aid.     For fraudulently receiving more than $10,000 in cash aid.     According to the violation checked above, this means that:     You cannot get aid as of Penalties for violations committed on or after January 1, 1998    Six months for the first violation for not reporting all facts or giving wrong facts.   Twelve months for the second violation for not reporting all facts or giving wrong facts.   Two years for the first violation for:   A felony conviction in a state or federal court, and the overpayment is less than $2,000.   For filing, on purpose, more than one application for the same type of aid, for the same period of time.   Four years for the second violation for filing, on purpose, more than one application for the same type of aid, for the same type of time.   Five years for a felony conviction in a state or federal court for fraudulently receiving between $2,000 and $5,000 in cash aid.   Permanently:   For the third violation for:   Not reporting all facts or giving wrong facts.   Filing, on purpose, more than one application for the same type of aid, for the same period of time.   For filing an application for children who are not eligible or do not exist.   For lying about or misrepresenting your place of residence in order to get more than one cash aid grant at the same time from two or more states or counties.   For a felony conviction in a state or federal court for fraudulently receiving or attempting to get more than $5,000 in cash aid.   According to the violation checked above, this means that:   You cannot get aid as of months. Since you are not eligible now, this penalty will start when you reapply and are otherwise eligible.   You have been permanently disqualified from the CalWORKs Program as of not the same period of time.   You have been permanently disqualified from the CalWORKs Program as of not the same period of time.
Six months for the first violation for not reporting all facts or giving wrong facts.  Twelve months for the second violation for not reporting all facts or giving wrong facts.  Two years for the first violation for:  A felony conviction in a state or federal court, and the overpayment is less than $2,000.  For filling, on purpose, more than one application for the same type of aid, for the same period of time.  Four years for the second violation for filling, on purpose, more than one application for the same type of aid, for the same period of time.  For the third violation for:  Not reporting all facts or giving wrong facts.  Filling, on purpose, more than one application for the same type of aid, for the same period of time.  For filling an application for children who are not eligible or do not exist.  For lying about or misrepresenting your place of residence in order to get more than one cash aid grant at the same time from two or more states or counties.  For a felony conviction in a state or federal court for fraudulently receiving or attempting to get more than $5,000 in cash aid.  According to the violation checked above, this means that:  You cannot get aid as of months. Since you are not eligible now, this penalty will start when you reapply and are otherwise eligible.  You have been permanently disqualified from the CalWORKs Program as of		r children who are ineligible or do not exist.
<ul> <li>□ Twelve months for the second violation for:</li> <li>□ A felony conviction in a state or federal court, and the overpayment is less than $2,000.</li> <li>□ For filing, on purpose, more than one application for the same type of aid, for the same period of time.</li> <li>□ Four years for the second violation for filing, on purpose, more than one application for the same type of aid, for the same type of aid, for the same type of time.</li> <li>□ Five years for a felony conviction in a state or federal court for fraudulently receiving between $2,000 and $5,000 in cash aid.</li> <li>□ Permanently:</li> <li>□ For the third violation for:</li> <li>□ Not reporting all facts or giving wrong facts.</li> <li>□ Filing, on purpose, more than one application for the same type of aid, for the same period of time.</li> <li>□ For filing an application for children who are not eligible or do not exist.</li> <li>□ For lying about or misrepresenting your place of residence in order to get more than one cash aid grant at the same time from two or more states or counties.</li> <li>□ For a felony conviction in a state or federal court for fraudulently receiving or attempting to get more than $5,000 in cash aid.</li> <li>□ According to the violation checked above, this means that:</li> <li>□ You cannot get aid as of months. Since you are not eligible now, this penalty will start when you reapply and are otherwise eligible.</li> <li>□ You have been permanently disqualified from the CalWORKs Program as of</li> </ul>	Penalties for violations committed on or after January 1, 1998  Six months for the first violation for not reporting all facts or giving wrong facts
Two years for the first violation for:  A felony conviction in a state or federal court, and the overpayment is less than $2,000.  For filing, on purpose, more than one application for the same type of aid, for the same period of time.  Four years for the second violation for filing, on purpose, more than one application for the same type of aid, for the same period of time.  Five years for a felony conviction in a state or federal court for fraudulently receiving between $2,000 and $5,000 in cash aid.  Permanently:  For the third violation for:  Not reporting all facts or giving wrong facts.  Filing, on purpose, more than one application for the same type of aid, for the same period of time.  For filing an application for children who are not eligible or do not exist.  For lying about or misrepresenting your place of residence in order to get more than one cash aid grant at the same time from two or more states or counties.  For a felony conviction in a state or federal court for fraudulently receiving or attempting to get more than $5,000 in cash aid.  According to the violation checked above, this means that:  You cannot get aid as of months. Since you are not eligible now, this penalty will start when you reapply and are otherwise eligible.  You have been permanently disqualified from the CalWORKS Program as of	Twelve months for the second violation for not reporting all facts or giving wrong facts.
<ul> <li>□ For filling, on purpose, more than one application for the same type of aid, for the same period of time.</li> <li>□ Four years for the second violation for filling, on purpose, more than one application for the same type of aid, for the same period of time.</li> <li>□ Five years for a felony conviction in a state or federal court for fraudulently receiving between $2,000 and $5,000 in cash aid.</li> <li>□ Permanently:</li> <li>□ For the third violation for:</li> <li>□ Not reporting all facts or giving wrong facts.</li> <li>□ Filling, on purpose, more than one application for the same type of aid, for the same period of time.</li> <li>□ For lying about or misrepresenting your place of residence in order to get more than one cash aid grant at the same time from two or more states or counties.</li> <li>□ For a felony conviction in a state or federal court for fraudulently receiving or attempting to get more than $5,000 in cash aid.</li> <li>□ For fraudulently receiving more than $10,000 in cash aid.</li> <li>According to the violation checked above, this means that:</li> <li>□ You cannot get aid as of months. Since you are not eligible now, this penalty will start when you reapply and are otherwise eligible.</li> <li>□ You have been permanently disqualified from the CalWORKs Program as of</li> </ul>	☐ Two years for the first violation for:
□ Four years for the second violation for filing, on purpose, more than one application for the same type of aid, for the same period of time. □ Five years for a felony conviction in a state or federal court for fraudulently receiving between $2,000 and $5,000 in cash aid. □ Permanently: □ For the third violation for: □ Not reporting all facts or giving wrong facts. □ Filing, on purpose, more than one application for the same type of aid, for the same period of time. □ For filing an application for children who are not eligible or do not exist. □ For lying about or misrepresenting your place of residence in order to get more than one cash aid grant at the same time from two or more states or counties. □ For a felony conviction in a state or federal court for fraudulently receiving or attempting to get more than $5,000 in cash aid. □ For fraudulently receiving more than $10,000 in cash aid. □ According to the violation checked above, this means that: □ You cannot get aid as of months. Since you are not eligible now, this penalty will start when you reapply and are otherwise eligible. □ You have been permanently disqualified from the CalWORKs Program as of
of time.  Five years for a felony conviction in a state or federal court for fraudulently receiving between $2,000 and $5,000 in cash aid.  Permanently:  For the third violation for:  Not reporting all facts or giving wrong facts.  Filing, on purpose, more than one application for the same type of aid, for the same period of time.  For filing an application for children who are not eligible or do not exist.  For lying about or misrepresenting your place of residence in order to get more than one cash aid grant at the same time from two or more states or counties.  For a felony conviction in a state or federal court for fraudulently receiving or attempting to get more than $5,000 in cash aid.  For fraudulently receiving more than $10,000 in cash aid.  According to the violation checked above, this means that:  You cannot get aid as of months/years.  You cannot get aid for months. Since you are not eligible now, this penalty will start when you reapply and are otherwise eligible.  You have been permanently disqualified from the CalWORKs Program as of	— 3/ · [ · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·
<ul> <li>□ Five years for a felony conviction in a state or federal court for fraudulently receiving between $2,000 and $5,000 in cash aid.</li> <li>□ Permanently:</li> <li>□ For the third violation for:</li> <li>□ Not reporting all facts or giving wrong facts.</li> <li>□ Filing, on purpose, more than one application for the same type of aid, for the same period of time.</li> <li>□ For filing an application for children who are not eligible or do not exist.</li> <li>□ For lying about or misrepresenting your place of residence in order to get more than one cash aid grant at the same time from two or more states or counties.</li> <li>□ For a felony conviction in a state or federal court for fraudulently receiving or attempting to get more than $5,000 in cash aid.</li> <li>□ For fraudulently receiving more than $10,000 in cash aid.</li> <li>According to the violation checked above, this means that:</li> <li>□ You cannot get aid as of months. Since you are not eligible now, this penalty will start when you reapply and are otherwise eligible.</li> <li>□ You have been permanently disqualified from the CalWORKs Program as of</li> </ul>		note than one application for the same type of aid, for the same period
<ul> <li>□ For the third violation for:</li> <li>□ Not reporting all facts or giving wrong facts.</li> <li>□ Filing, on purpose, more than one application for the same type of aid, for the same period of time.</li> <li>□ For filing an application for children who are not eligible or do not exist.</li> <li>□ For lying about or misrepresenting your place of residence in order to get more than one cash aid grant at the same time from two or more states or counties.</li> <li>□ For a felony conviction in a state or federal court for fraudulently receiving or attempting to get more than $5,000 in cash aid.</li> <li>□ For fraudulently receiving more than $10,000 in cash aid.</li> <li>□ According to the violation checked above, this means that:</li> <li>□ You cannot get aid as of for months/years.</li> <li>□ You cannot get aid for months. Since you are not eligible now, this penalty will start when you reapply and are otherwise eligible.</li> <li>□ You have been permanently disqualified from the CalWORKs Program as of</li> </ul>	☐ Five years for a felony conviction in a state or federal court for	r fraudulently receiving between $2,000 and $5,000 in cash aid.
<ul> <li>Not reporting all facts or giving wrong facts.</li> <li>Filing, on purpose, more than one application for the same type of aid, for the same period of time.</li> <li>For filing an application for children who are not eligible or do not exist.</li> <li>For lying about or misrepresenting your place of residence in order to get more than one cash aid grant at the same time from two or more states or counties.</li> <li>For a felony conviction in a state or federal court for fraudulently receiving or attempting to get more than $5,000 in cash aid.</li> <li>For fraudulently receiving more than $10,000 in cash aid.</li> <li>According to the violation checked above, this means that:</li> <li>You cannot get aid as of for months/years.</li> <li>You cannot get aid for months. Since you are not eligible now, this penalty will start when you reapply and are otherwise eligible.</li> <li>You have been permanently disqualified from the CalWORKs Program as of</li> </ul>
<ul> <li>☐ Filing, on purpose, more than one application for the same type of aid, for the same period of time.</li> <li>☐ For filing an application for children who are not eligible or do not exist.</li> <li>☐ For lying about or misrepresenting your place of residence in order to get more than one cash aid grant at the same time from two or more states or counties.</li> <li>☐ For a felony conviction in a state or federal court for fraudulently receiving or attempting to get more than $5,000 in cash aid.</li> <li>☐ For fraudulently receiving more than $10,000 in cash aid.</li> <li>According to the violation checked above, this means that:</li> <li>☐ You cannot get aid as of for months/years.</li> <li>☐ You cannot get aid for months. Since you are not eligible now, this penalty will start when you reapply and are otherwise eligible.</li> <li>☐ You have been permanently disqualified from the CalWORKs Program as of</li> </ul>
<ul> <li>□ For filing an application for children who are not eligible or do not exist.</li> <li>□ For lying about or misrepresenting your place of residence in order to get more than one cash aid grant at the same time from two or more states or counties.</li> <li>□ For a felony conviction in a state or federal court for fraudulently receiving or attempting to get more than $5,000 in cash aid.</li> <li>□ For fraudulently receiving more than $10,000 in cash aid.</li> <li>□ According to the violation checked above, this means that:</li> <li>□ You cannot get aid as of for months/years.</li> <li>□ You cannot get aid for months. Since you are not eligible now, this penalty will start when you reapply and are otherwise eligible.</li> <li>□ You have been permanently disqualified from the CalWORKs Program as of</li> </ul>		e same type of aid, for the same period of time.
same time from two or more states or counties.  For a felony conviction in a state or federal court for fraudulently receiving or attempting to get more than $5,000 in cash aid.  For fraudulently receiving more than $10,000 in cash aid.  According to the violation checked above, this means that:  You cannot get aid as of for months/years.  You cannot get aid for months. Since you are not eligible now, this penalty will start when you reapply and are otherwise eligible.  You have been permanently disqualified from the CalWORKs Program as of	☐ For filing an application for children who are not eligible of	or do not exist.
For a felony conviction in a state or federal court for fraudulently receiving or attempting to get more than $5,000 in cash aid. For fraudulently receiving more than $10,000 in cash aid.  According to the violation checked above, this means that:  You cannot get aid as of for months/years.  You cannot get aid for months. Since you are not eligible now, this penalty will start when you reapply and are otherwise eligible.  You have been permanently disqualified from the CalWORKs Program as of		ce in order to get more than one cash aid grant at the
<ul> <li>□ For fraudulently receiving more than $10,000 in cash aid.</li> <li>According to the violation checked above, this means that:</li> <li>□ You cannot get aid as of for months/years.</li> <li>□ You cannot get aid for months. Since you are not eligible now, this penalty will start when you reapply and are otherwise eligible.</li> <li>□ You have been permanently disqualified from the CalWORKs Program as of</li> </ul>		idulantly receiving or attempting to get more than $5,000 in each aid
According to the violation checked above, this means that:    You cannot get aid as of for months/years.   You cannot get aid for months. Since you are not eligible now, this penalty will start when you reapply and are otherwise eligible.   You have been permanently disqualified from the CalWORKs Program as of
You cannot get aid as of for months/years.  You cannot get aid for months. Since you are not eligible now, this penalty will start when you reapply and are otherwise eligible.  You have been permanently disqualified from the CalWORKs Program as of	According to the violation checked above, this means that:
otherwise eligible.  ———————————————————————————————————	You cannot get aid as of for for	months/years.
You have been permanently disqualified from the CalWORKs Program as of		re not eligible now, this penalty will start when you reapply and are
 		ORK's Program as of
		on the state of th	